

Together we will beat cancer

Work Placement Position with Cancer Council NSW

Cancer Council NSW would like to offer CSU Business students an opportunity to undertake a work placement with them. Cancer Council NSW have a range of short and long-term roles, projects and activities that can match your skills, interests and availability.

Subject/s:	Session 1 (30): BUS220 Session 2 (60): BUS110 Session 3 (90): BUS110, BUS220
Specialisation:	Any
Location:	Wagga Wagga, Orange
Availability:	Unlimited positions available

Sample activities:

Support the work of the Cancer Council offices

Each region has a variety of roles for volunteers to enhance the work of Cancer Council NSW, including help with promotional materials, assisting with mail-outs, data entry, general clerical activities and customer service.

Help on one of Cancer Council's major events

Use your talents and enthusiasm to volunteer on one of Cancer Council's community events such as Daffodil Day, Relay For Life, Pink Ribbon Day or Australia's Biggest Morning Tea.

Volunteering at Cancer Council NSW offers the opportunity to build skills and experience, network with other like-minded people.

Apply now to make a difference

We have opportunities for everyone to use their individual skills and available time to help beat cancer. We create a stimulating environment where passionate people can work together to achieve amazing things.

To apply, please email your resume, a covering letter and a copy of your academic transcript to Linda Hoey on linda.hoey@nswcc.org.au or for further information call Linda on 02 6937 2660.