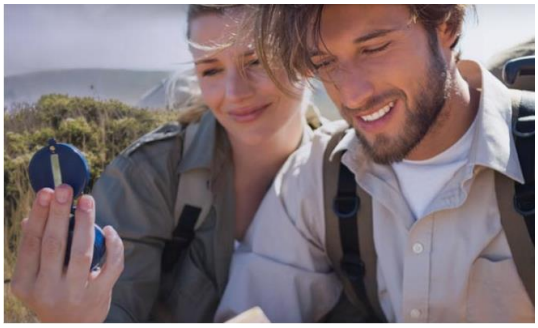
Work Placement Position

2nd Year Accounting Student

Shaw Gidley Insolvency and Reconstruction specialises in insolvency and business recovery, including assisting companies in financial distress with assessing their options, formulating strategy and in some instances, the corporate liquidation process. Shaw Gidley also provides advice and assistance to individuals with personal insolvency issues, which can include, but not limited to, applying for and declaring bankruptcy.

Our offices are located in Newcastle, Port Macquarie and Tuggerah on the Central Coast NSW, and between them we have over 70 years of combined experience in the insolvency and reconstruction profession.

Subject:	Session 1 (30): ACC275 Session 2 (60): ACC275
Specialisation:	Accounting
Location:	Port Macquarie
Availability:	One (1) position available



Shaw Gidley Port Macquarie would like to extend an offer to CSU Business Students to undertake a work placement with our organisation.

Your placement will give you some insight into a non-mainstream accounting discipline that you may not have considered as a potential career path.

During the work placement, you will gain exposure to:

- A specialist insolvency accounting practice.
- Corporations and Bankruptcy Law.
- A range of IT accounting systems.
- Mentoring from experienced insolvency professionals and chartered accountants.

Not a tax return in sight!

A successful work placement can lead to ongoing employment with Shaw Gidley.

HOW TO APPLY:

Complete Form F: Authority to Disclose Information, and email along with a covering letter, a copy of your academic transcript and resume to Jenny Grainger (Manager, Workplace Learning, Faculty of Business, Justice & Behavioural Sciences) at FOBJBS-WPL@csu.edu.au .
